JEALOUSY OF ALLIES SPOILS AIMS IN RUSSIA

(By Associated Press)
LONDON (Friday), Jan. 4.—The foreign office denies that a British ultimatum has been sent to the German commander in the Baltic region, as has been reported. The office declares it had no reports of the landing of large British forces in the Baltic provinces. The announcement that 24,000 Japanese troops were withdrawn from Siberia was reported in Tokyo dispatches to the press, quoting an official of the Japanese war office in a statement of December 27, which statement said that Japan intended to maintain only the smallest possible forces in Siberia.

CASUALTIES IN SIBERIA ARE LIGHT

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—The total American deaths in the Archangel region to November 25 were 86, General March reported. Nine were killed in action, seven died of wounds, three were drowned, two died by accident and 65 from disease. The military situation is entirely in hand. The troops are adequately clothed for the winter campaign. Units abroad returning soon will total 292,000. Troops in America and abroad to be demobilized total 1,270,000. Orders sent at the beginning of demobilization of the last army class here and combat divisions were incomplete. The total on January 3 showed 630,619 men and 40,491 officers discharged.

IN PEACE CONFERENCE

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, Jan. 4.—Russian Bolsheviks will send Adolph Joffe to the peace conference, said the Echo de Paris.

CHANGES AT THE COURTHOUSE BECOME EFFECTIVE MONDAY

Monday morning will witness several changes at the courthouse owing to the merging of the offices of county clerk and county treasurer and the change of the personnel in the sheriff's office. Jack Barrier, the new sheriff, has appointed Charles L. Slavin, chief deputy, with B. M. Bateman, Eddie Addison and Albert Kelly assistants. With this aggregation of deputies the new sheriff should not experience any trouble in looking after the business arriving at his office. Mr. Slavin brings experience and ability to the job and may be relied on to establish a record for maintaining the most perfect set of account books and statistics in the state. Eddie Addison is an old resident who ranks as one of the leading accountants of Nevada and Albert Kelly has been one of the most active business men of Tonopah for fourteen years. B. M. Bateman, who has been a deputy under Sheriff Thomas, has handled the assessing of property of the Tonopah district. Is a well qualified auditor and deserving of the appointment just made by Sheriff-elect Jack Barrier.

Gompers Says No Trade Stagnation

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Gompers said he was for Europe Wednesday. He said American won't experience any trade stagnation.

170 SUBMARINES DISCOVERED BY VISITING ALLIES

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, Jan. 4.—When the inter-allied naval commission visited Germany it found 170 submarines under construction. These must be delivered to the allies they said. Had Germany's newest submarines of 28,000 tons will be delivered to the allies in a few days.

STILL AGITATING FOR NEW TRIAL

(By Associated Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 4.—The San Francisco labor council has asked the legislature to investigate the bomb cases and demanding a new trial for Mooney and Billings.

CHANGES AT THE COURTHOUSE BECOME EFFECTIVE MONDAY

Mrs. Jennie Caroux, county auditor and recorder, will retain Mrs. Coulter as her efficient deputy. It was through the combination of forces that the two ladies brought the office up to its present high state of excellence. No fault has ever been found either with the methods or the individuals who have never failed to show the greatest courtesy to all comers in quest of information from the records in their control. Lawrence E. Glass, county clerk, will assume the duties of treasurer. He will retain Mrs. Gilbert to look after the finances of the county on her supervision, while Miss Lena Haffner, who ranks as an unimpeachable authority on all matters relating to county affairs in every department of the building will continue to exercise the functions of clerk of the district court. Chief of Police Jack Grant regrets the departure of his able deputy, Mr. Slavin, who will be succeeded by Elbert O'Connell, as the executive of the office. Mr. O'Connell is too well known to all residents of Tonopah to need special eulogy from the press.

ONE BILLION AND A HALF FOR RELIEF

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, Jan. 4.—A billion and a half dollars worth of food must be sent to Europe by July Herbert Hoover said today. American officials are investigating Germany. Immediate relief for Germans is not to be used hesitantly.

Mr. Hoover said the liberated territories will be fed first, as many of these have no credit for food. In exchange for shipping Germany will gradually be allowed food. Freight tonnage will be allowed the equivalent of passenger tonnage for American troops. Two ships of food are en route for Finland and several from Rotterdam for Poland and the Baltic provinces.

Five Sessions Arranged for Peace Conference

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, Jan. 4.—The Petit Parisien today outlined the peace conference. The first conference will be of the four great powers. To the second Belgian and Serbian representatives will be admitted. At the third conference other allies will be admitted to discuss problems affecting them. A fifth or general conference will discuss the future of nations free by the presentation of terms necessary to Germany, Hungary, Turkey, and Austria.

TRIAL OF BERGER FOR SEDITION COMES TO END

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—The defense in the Berger trial closed this afternoon. Of the five Socialists tried here for violation of the espionage act, Victor L. Berger of Milwaukee, publisher of the Milwaukee Leader and congressional elect, was regarded as the most important. All, however, are prominent in the leadership of the Socialist party in America. Berger, tall and broad-shouldered, was born at Neider-Rebbuch, Austria-Hungary, in 1860. He was educated at Budapest and Vienna and when financial reverses overtook his family emigrated with them to the United States. He edited German language papers and finally established the Leader, printed in English. He was a pioneer Socialist organizer in this country. He served in the 62d con-

Cold Wave Ends on Pacific Coast

(By Associated Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 4.—The cold wave ends in a few days, the weather bureau predicted. Heavy frosts are forecast for tomorrow.

WOUNDED MEN REMOVED FROM STRANDED SHIP

(By Associated Press)
PIRE ISLAND, N. Y., Jan. 4.—Removal of 200 wounded, the last of the injured passengers aboard the stranded transport Northern Pacific, was begun today under clearing skies and in an even sea. Submarine chasers and naval launches carrying the men to the hospital ship Solace. They were expected to complete the removal before noon.

(By Associated Press)
PIRE ISLAND, Jan. 4.—The North Pacific has been cleared of arm and passengers. A transport the shipment of half of the crew has been ordered. Wrecking barges and lighters are prepared to beach operations to load the transport. Twenty soldiers, seriously wounded that it was necessary to carry them on stretchers down the stairway and down over the transport's side, made up the final contingent of passengers to leave the vessel.

gress and was the first Socialist ever elected to such an office in the United States. He, and Eugene V. Debs, after the failure of the famous American railway union strike of nearly thirty years ago, formed the groundwork of the Socialist party as a national organization. Debs, who led the strike, did all in his power to bring members of the labor organization into the Socialist ranks. Debs was sentenced to ten years imprisonment last summer at Cleveland for violation of the espionage act. The case is on appeal. Debs was the orator and continuous presidential candidate of the party. Berger is great organizer and business man. Adolph Germer was born in Prussia and William F. Kruse, another defendant, is of immediate German extraction. J. Louis Endahl's antecedents are Swedish, while the an-

LIBERTY PARTNERSHIP SAYS THE PRESIDENT BRINGING BIG RESULTS

(By Associated Press)
ROME, Jan. 4.—Wilson leaves for Paris tonight.

(By Associated Press)
ROME, Jan. 4.—President Wilson became a citizen of Rome tonight. The ceremony was held in the historic capital designed by Michelangelo, popular with suggestions of ancient and medieval Rome. Among the guests were the king and queen, members of the Italian military authorities, Wilson in an address, said: "I rejoice personally in the partnership of the Italian and American people because it is a new partnership in an old enterprise. This enterprise is the undertaking of enterprise which has always borne the handsome name we call liberty. Men pursued it sometimes like a mirage that seemed to elude them."
